

Yumi Panui

Director of Psychological Health (DPH)
154th Wing, Hawaii Air National Guard

Director of Psychological Health (DPH) for the Hawaii Air National Guard, 154th Wing.

Started working in the mental/behavioral health field in 1995, specialized in trauma and substance abuse.

Served in the Army National Guard (NG), from April 2010 to February 2021. Transitioned to the Air NG in March of 2021.

Civilian and uniformed, clinical military experience includes Army Family Advocacy, Army Embedded Behavioral Health, Army Substance Abuse Program, Veterans Affairs homeless programs, and the Army and Air NG Psychological Health Programs as a civilian behavioral health provider, a uniformed Chief of Behavioral Health, a uniformed behavioral health Officer in Charge (OIC) in a support battalion and an OIC in both Army and Air NG medical units, and as a DPH.